They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.

- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.

- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;

(iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and

(v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

M - Steps to promote four licencing objectives

a) General - all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e) (Please read guidance note 10)

	The premises is a small, indoor-only business where alcohol is served and consumed strictly on-site. There is no external area and customers will not be permitted to take alcohol or drinks outside at any time. The premises will operate until 23:30, with all licensable activities ceasing at that time. We are committed to running a safe, well-managed venue and promoting all four licensing objectives. Staff will be fully trained, strong management oversight will be in place, and we will work proactively with Southwark Council, Police, and local residents. Our small size allows for close supervision and controlled customer behaviour at all times.

b) the prevention of crime and disorder

	To prevent crime, disorder, and anti-social behaviour, we will implement the following controls: A high-quality CCTV system will operate 24/7 covering all entrances, internal customer areas, and the service/bar counter. Recordings will be kept for 31 days and provided to authorised officers upon request.

	A Challenge 25 policy will be strictly enforced for alcohol sales. Alcohol will only be sold by or under the supervision of a Personal Licence Holder. Staff will receive training in: - Responsible alcohol sales - Conflict management - Identifying intoxication - Procedures for refusals A refusal log and incident log will be maintained and available for inspection. No irresponsible drinks promotions will be allowed. Clear signage will remind customers to behave respectfully. The small size of the venue allows staff to effectively supervise all customer activity at all times.

c) public safety

	Public safety will be ensured through: - A completed and regularly reviewed Fire Risk Assessment. - Regular testing and maintenance of fire extinguishers, emergency lighting, and smoke detection systems. - Clear, unobstructed emergency exits. - Staff training in emergency evacuation procedures and basic first aid. - A stocked first aid kit on site at all times. - The premises will be kept clean, well-lit, and free from trip hazards. - Customer numbers will be closely monitored to prevent overcrowding due to the small premises size. - All equipment, including any kitchen appliances (if applicable), will be used safely and in accordance with manufacturer guidance.

d) the prevention of public nuisance

	As the premises does not have an external area, all activity will take place indoors, greatly reducing noise impact. Additional measures include: - Alcohol consumption and smoking will not be permitted outside the premises. - Customers will be encouraged to leave quietly, with clear "Please leave quietly" signage displayed at the exit. - Staff will supervise the dispersal of customers at closing time, especially between 23:00 and 23:30. - Doors and windows will remain closed when any background or amplified sound is in use, aside from normal entry and exit. - Noise levels inside will be monitored to ensure they are not audible outside the premises.

	Deliveries and waste collections will be arranged for reasonable daytime hours to avoid disturbance. The area outside the premises will be checked regularly to ensure it remains clean and free of litter.

e) the protection of children from harm

	We will ensure that children are protected through: A strict Challenge 25 age-verification policy. Acceptable ID: passport, photocard driving licence, or PASS-approved proof of age. A refusal log for attempted underage sales. Staff trained in recognising vulnerability and safeguarding concerns. Children will not be permitted on the premises without a responsible adult. No children will be allowed near the bar area unless supervised by an adult. All activities and products offered are suitable for an indoor, family-friendly environment.

Proof of Entitlement to work in the UK

Please upload your proof of entitlement to work in the UK or share code issued by the Home Office online right to work checking service. (Please see guidance below)

Note 15: Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be issued to an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who: does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. Any licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have the right to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

They do this in one of two ways: by providing with this application, copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant has provided, to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) as per information published on gov.uk and in guidance. by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below). Home Office online right to work checking service.

As an alternative to providing a copy of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth, will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Declaration

[Applicable to individual applicants only, including those in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership]

I understand I am not entitled to be issued with a licence if I do not have the entitlement to live and work in the UK (or if I am subject to a condition preventing me from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity) and that my licence will become invalid if I cease to be entitled to live and work in the UK.

The DPS named in this application form is entitled to work in the UK (and is not subject to conditions preventing him or her from doing work relating to a licensable activity) and I have seen a copy of his or her proof of entitlement to work, or have conducted an online right to work check using the Home Office online right to work checking service which confirmed their right to work.

I/We hereby declare the information provided is true and accurate.
